Malta Bend Phone.

A branch of workmen for the Saline County Telephone Co. reached our town Wednesday setting the poles for our new telephone line. The foreman of the gang, Will Summers, informs us that if the weather does not delay them, the line will be in working order by next Wednesday.

This will give us connection with the county seat, Warsaw, and Fayetteville at present, and later with every postoffice in the county. Also connection will be made with other lines, thus giving us long distance service in all directions.

It is intended to put in a telephone exchange here this winter if sufficient encouragement is received. In this count, all subscribers will have free service within the county, but will have to pay for long distance service. Geo. Nive.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headaches, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Louisville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50c at P. H. Franklin's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Caution in Introductions.

Outside of one's own house every one should be careful in the matter of making introductions. A lady at a recent dinner most safely introduced a new acquaintance herself, knowing that this makes introductions more carefully, and both men and women must first, if possible, get the consent of the persons to be introduced. An exception to this rule, which hardly needs to be noted, comes when three or four persons are thrown together, some of whom are strangers to all but one of the others. In this case, however, and in all cases, a simple introduction should be made. Some persons are so afraid of speaking that they never get introduced to all persons in their immediate neighborhood at any social function. It is needless to say that this wholesale introduction is entirely a mistake, and that those who engage in it usually make themselves very obnoxious to their acquaintances. A woman has always more freedom than a man in making introductions, and a man, for example, will hardly introduce two ladies to each other, unless he knows them both very well. Leah Lancelord in the November Woman's Home Companion.

Josiah has smiled twice, once when Harry Turner, the interrogation point of the Mexico Intelligence, tried to quote scripture, and the other when Mrs. Dulaney, on being asked if it might not have been the buffalo calf bawling instead of shrieks she heard, replied by asking Col. Culbert to bawl like one and she would tell him, having never heard a buffalo calf bawl. Paris Mercury.
